“ I worked with Scott at 30 Isabella for almost 4 years. He was such a kind, sweet, and helpful man. We had so many conversations between us at work, and when he first met my 4 kids, he was shocked cause he said I (at that time) didn't look old enough to have 1 kid let alone 4 and I assured him I was indeed old enough. Lol. He was so nice and easy to be around and he was always cracking jokes to pass our long nights here. And no matter what I needed him for, I could call him and he would stop whatever he was doing to help me. We were a team, we were colleagues, we were friends and there was definitely no one else who came close to the kind hearted man he was. Coming to work without him here now is very difficult. I hope you have found peace and are reunited with your loved ones in heaven. Rest in peace Scott. You will forever be missed. 🥺💔

“ A kind soul, a true friend. What more can we cherish in this life. That was Scott. Many years ago my father told me that you can count your best friends on one hand. Scott held one of those spots. May you be warmly embraced in the loving arms of God and rest in peace. Your openhearted nature and skill at putting folks at ease with a joke or two was indeed your gift to us all, Scott. I will forever miss you my good, good friend.

“ A really good guy and always concerned for his friends and 38th Street neighbors. I started first grade with Scott at St. John and we graduated high school together. I pray he rests in the peace of the God he believed in and served. He was an usher at St. Augs. May the Lord greet him and take him to his place of rest.

“ The world lost a kind soul ok November 22, 2019. Words cannot express the the sadness of my heart. I have so many cherished memories of you Uncle Scott— from playing hide and seek in your home, walking over to Arsenal Park, playing games at the North Park Clubhouse, to all of the many holidays and birthdays that we spent together. We will forever laugh at the many jokes that you enjoyed telling just to get someone to smile. I pray that you have been able to reunite with all of our loved ones that have passed, especially my beloved grandparents and your mother and father. We will miss you but your spirit with forever be in our hearts. Rest In Peace Uncle Scott.

Love,

Dave, Whitney, Blake, & Madelyn
