Tribute Wall

“ Sherry was a longtime resident of South Pacific Avenue in Bloomfield (which some of us call Friendship), and a dear neighbor to me for nearly 30 years. I will miss her warm companionship and welcoming smile, as well as the excellent fudge she made for holidays and events such as the annual neighborhood street party. I admired Sherry for her independence, her commitments to church and community, and the quiet grit with which she met the health challenges of her later years. I will miss her. Condolences to her family.
