“ One of our fondest memories is when we were watching Tammy and Louis for the weekend and we all went to Red Lobster for Dinner. This was their first time there. Nancy and I , as always , ordered Crab legs. Louis and Tammy ordered some sort of chicken dinners. When the food was served Nancy and I shared with them how to open and devour Crab legs, three or four additional orders of legs were had that day. Giving them the opportunity to try something new and how excited they were that day plus the fun we had is one of the favorite memories we cherish in our lives of the times we spent together.
