“ Valerie knew me since I was born. Knew my family when they were young. So she knew everything about me. I didn't know much about her just stories. But she was very kind and every Halloween would give me candy.

She was my neighbor for the longest time before she needed some help medically. For a year haven't heard anything but was always thinking wondering about her. She had the sweetest dogs too I remember. We always talked about them. I'm sure she's with her dogs now. :) I'll miss her “ Val I am going to miss you dearly. You truly lived life on your terms. Sis you are one of kind and I thank you for the memories you leave me with. So, rest now in peace with mom. Dad and your animals that you loved so much. Oh, almost forgot to mention that you where one hell of a cook. You really had a knack. I could not have asked for a better sister. Goodbye Val till we meet again in heaven,

“ Len and Sandy:

As a child I always remembered Val as the "cool" one. Wish I would have seen more of her in later years, but life takes us all down crazy paths sometimes.

You and your families are in my thoughts.

Love... Steve and Pam
