

Wayne Lundy Sr.

October 7, 1956 - August 15, 2025

Mr. Wayne "Piggy" Lundy Sr., born on October 7, 1956, in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania, passed away on August 15, 2025, in Duquesne Pennsylvania. He was 68 years young.

Wayne was a man of quiet strength and unwavering resilience from an early age, who developed a deep sense of discipline and toughness both physical and mental that carried him through life's many challenges. Those who knew him recognized the warrior spirit that defined his character and guided his journey. He had a passion for the arts and self expression. A gifted singer with a soulful voice who shared that gift with others. He was a talented artist. He was also known as one of the best roller skaters around - graceful on wheels with agility and flair.

Wayne is survived by his children: Waynesha, and Wayne Lundy Jr., as well as his cherished grandchildren. His legacy continues through them and all who carry memories of his strength and spirit.

He was preceded in death by Zane Lundy Sr. His immediate and beloved family members are: Laverne Hollis, Lundy, Zane Lundy Jr., Brenda Lundy, Verna Lundy Duncan, William Lundy, Zachary Lundy Sr., Tony Lundy, Barry Lundy, Shawn Lundy, Ramona Lundy Burns, Eric Lundy, Percy Lundy, and a host of aunts uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Tribute Wall

EL

“ One memory I have is when Piggy came over to change the lock on our door and Minizel just sat there and stared at him the whole time he was working.

He thought that was so funny then when he was done he looked up and she had went into her box.

We will miss you dearly.

Love
Mykey & Lori

Erik & Laura Lundy - August 28, 2025 at 03:04 PM

PM

My memory of Wayne was we graduated together from high school and I had to talk him into going to our class reunion he came. He was very quiet but I was so happy for him to come. I just saw Wayne about a month ago singing we exchange phone numbers he was such a great guy. He will truly be missed.

Love, Patti Marcus

Patti Marcus - August 30, 2025 at 01:34 PM

RB

I still cannot believe I will not see my big brother again. I miss him so much. So so so much. Love ❤️ always.

Ramona Burns - September 02, 2025 at 08:37 AM

DH

“ 2 files added to the tribute wall

D'Alessandro Funeral Home - August 28, 2025 at 01:53 PM