“ My deepest condolences to the entire Zanone family. For over 20 years Bill was my insurance agent. He also was my confidant, adviser, dear friend and long time fierce opponent at the Lindenwood Golf Club (Zanone team (vs) Stephenson team). Bill was truly an exceptional person with great integrity. He will be missed greatly. Jack Stephenson

“ 37 years ago Bill opened his heart and his home to myself and my son as I joined my life to Tom Zanone. A generous loving family man, my son became his instant grandson. To him, it never mattered. On Wednesday the legacy continued with the birth of twins. Welcome Lucy Vivian and Thomas William to the Zanone clan. He wanted to wait and make sure they arrived safely before he said his last goodbye. I wish you could have held them Bill before you left us.

I first met the Zanone kids in the early 80s... Worked at McDs with Karen, Ken and Bobby and Ken's wife Thelma. The Zanones were the greatest family. All of our friends gathered over at their house and Mom (Lois) was so much fun and so gracious. What I remember most about Bill was that he was always growing and learning to express his love in new ways to his kids and grandkids. It was beautiful because at the time, change did not come easily to fathers. He visited his oldest son in Florida, he wrote his children letters and he opened up to who they were. I was quite moved and amazed at the concrete steps he was taking. Cheers to Bill Zanone! RIP. You and Lois raised some wonderful children. I am so saddened by your loss but he will live on in all of you.

“ Best Boss Ever! I worked with Bill for 30 years. He was a truly a fine man. Loved his family, never a harsh word for me or anything unkind in 30 years. He was respectful and generous and appreciative of everything I did. I was a lucky lady to have him for a boss. I will miss you Bill, and thank you for all those times you stopped at the donut shop and brought us donuts always saying it was "fat free sugar free donut day" !!! Karen Himes
