

Ziphora Severa Hogan

December 8, 1955 - December 6, 2023

Ziphora Severa Hogan, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, was born to Daisy Jarrett and Carlos Miyares on December 8, 1955. Ziphora entered eternal rest on Wednesday, December 6, 2023, at UPMC Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Ziphora was a sister to Alan Jarrett (Thea), Charmette Miyares, Julius Jarrett Jr., Carlos Miyares III, Chunia Miyares and Daryl Jarrett.

She is preceded in death by father Carlos Miyares Jr., stepfather Julius Jarrett, sister Celese Wells, and brother Rayshawn Jarrett.

Ziphora, affectionately known as "Lady Z" and "Mikey" was a dear friend to all that knew her. Ziphora was also well known for her vibrant personality, effortless style, and her love for the color purple.

Ziphora devoted her life to Jehovah. She was a member of the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses congregation, Allegheny. Ziphora graduated from the Community College of Allegheny County in May of 1990 with an Associate Degree of Science in Financial Services. In 1995, Ziphora married her beloved husband, David Hogan. Ziphora entered into the workforce as a Program Coordinator at HighMark, followed by her role as a Financial Service Sales Consultant at PNC Bank. Before retirement, Ziphora was employed by Alliance Data for 5 years as a Customer Care Resolution Specialist.

Ziphora leaves to cherish her memory, her mother, Daisy Jarrett, husband, David Hogan, daughters, Tammara Petty (John, Tanara Robinson (Michael), and Jaqueaya Hogan; sons, Henry Robinson Jr., Tay/in Cooper (Tonya), and David Hogan Sr.; twenty-seven grandchildren, fifteen great grandchildren and one great-great-granddaughter. Four sisters-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.

Ziphora will be sadly missed by her loved ones every day, but her memory will never fade away.
